

Supporting Undocumented Students

In the classroom

Engage with an open mind

- Know that students are feeling vulnerable, scared, distressed, and overwhelmed

Create a climate of respect

- Listen and choose words carefully (undocumented, NOT “illegal”)
- Civility in the classroom: <http://www.facultydiversity.org/page/Support>

Validate feelings – “of course you would feel scared” “Of course this is scary”

- Don’t minimize

Know that you do NOT have to fix/solve it (and that, at the moment, there is no fix for many)

Establish a check-in or invite student to come back and see you

Directly support scholarships for undocumented students

- Directly support scholarships for undocumented students. When these students are unable to continue working legally, they and their families will face added financial burdens.  - For your convenience, tax-deductible donations can be made online at <https://giveteto.csulb.edu/CLASOC06> or
 - By check made to "49er Foundation" – with "Norma Stoltz Chinchilla Scholarship" in the memo line and mailed to California State University, Long Beach – College of Liberal Arts – 1250 Bellflower Blvd. Long Beach, CA 90840
 - Questions about the scholarship can be directed to Kris Zentgraf, krist.zentgraf@csulb.edu
